WASHINGTON, DC - Congressman Jerry Moran today announced that Tom Bush of Lawrence has joined his office in Washington, D.C., where he will serve as a legislative correspondent. Bush completed an internship in Moran's office in May.

"Tom proved to be a valuable addition to my office during his internship," Moran said. "I am pleased he will continue working on behalf of Kansans."

Bush is a 2004 graduate of Lawrence High School and a 2008 graduate of Washington and Lee University, where he received a bachelor's degree in business administration. Bush was a member of College Republicans while at Washington and Lee.

"It is a privilege to be a part of Congressman Moran's team, and certainly is an exciting time to be on Capitol Hill," Bush said. "I am eager to continue working for my home state in Washington, D.C."

As a legislative correspondent, Bush will help Moran respond to the concerns of Kansans and manage various administrative projects.

Tom is the son of John and Ann Bush of Lawrence.
